Fifth
ARAB COMPETITION FORUM (ACF)
22-23 May 2024
Tunisia

5th Arab Competition Forum 2024- Biography

Kalthoum Rajeb Kozah

Minister of Trade and Export Development, Tunisia

She holds a professorship in law (public law) from the Faculty of Law and Economic Sciences in Sousse (June 1991), a certificate of completion of the training stage for a specialist in collection at the National School of Taxes in France (July 1992 to July 1993), and a certificate of completion of studies in the higher stage of the National School of Administration specializing in finance (February 1995). She is an advisor to public interests starting in 1995 in the General Administration of Taxes at the Ministry of Finance and a Director General in charge of dispute and tax reconciliation in the General Administration of Taxes and is charged with supervising the Muwaffaq Tax Foundation since March 2022 with the plan and privileges of a general secretary of the Ministry. She is the head of the National Committee for Tax Reconciliation in the General Administration of Taxes. She is also the representative of the Ministry of Finance in the Economic Institutions Follow-up Committee of the Ministry in charge of Industry, and the representative of the Ministry of Finance in the committee created in the Ministry of Justice, which prepared the Collective Procedures Law. In addition, she is a member of the Council of the National Office of Traditional Crafts Foundation, a member of the National Committee for the Evaluation of Tunisia by the experts of the Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Fiscal Purposes of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OCDE), and a representative of the General Administration of Performances in works related to the International Program to Combat Base Erosion. Taxation within the framework of Tunisia's involvement in the program (Base Erosion and Profit Shifting). Dr. Kalthoum is charged with supervising the work of establishing the legislative framework related to the automatic exchange of information related to financial accounts for tax purposes and is charged with teaching at the National School of Finance and preparing pedagogical documents in the subjects of tax dispute for the basis of performance, and tax violations and crimes.